EDITORIAL

This issue contains the Symposium entitled "Hemorheological Disorders in Cardiovascular Diseases" which was part of the Fifth International Congress of Biorheology. It is published in CLINICAL HEMORHEOLOGY because it deals entirely with clinical hemorheology, it constitutes Part II of the Congress Proceedings, while Part I is published in BIORHEOLOGY Volume 21, double issue 1/2.

This issue also contains Non-Congress Papers as well as abstracts. Regarding the latter, there are the abstracts in the Abstract Section submitted by its Editors. There are also abstracts of Papers presented before the French Society of Biorheology at their meeting in Rennes, France on September 30, 1983.

In subsequent issues of CLINICAL HEMORHEOLOGY, we shall publish the Proceedings of the 3rd European Conference on Clinical Haemorheology, held August 24-27 1983, Baden-Baden, F.R. Germany.
