

CALENDAR OF MAJOR COMPUTER-CHESS EVENTS

For the benefit of our readers who may wish to enter programs in future computer-chess competitions or to attend as spectators, we shall publish in every issue of the ICCA Journal a list of future events. Anyone who is planning to organize an event which should be listed in this calendar is invited to send full details to the Editor.

1988

World Microcomputer Chess Championships, September 24th to October 2nd. Hotel Porto Magno, Agua Dulce, near Almeria, Spain.

Details: David Levy (telephone London 624-5551) or Amador Cuesta (telephone Madrid 262-8185).

19th North American (ACM) Computer Chess Championships, November 13th to 15th, Orlando, Florida.

Details: Professor Monty Newborn, School of Computer Science, Burnside Hall, McGill University, Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

1989

World Computer Chess Championships, May 27th to 31st Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

Details: Professor Tony Marsland or Dr. Jonathan Schaeffer, Department of Computer Science, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

1st Computer Olympiad and 1st London Conference on Computer Games, August 9th to 15th Park Lane Hotel, London, England.

Details: David Levy, 11 Loudoun Road, London NW8 OLP.

World Microcomputer Chess Championships. Details to be announced.

20th North American (ACM) Computer Chess Championships, November. San Francisco, California.

Details: Professor Monty Newborn (see above).

1990

Human chess Master and Grand Master v Computer tournament (all-play-all), dates to be announced. London, England. This event will be held alongside the 6th "Advances in Computer Chess" Conference.

World Microcomputer Chess Championships. Details to be announced.

21st North American (ACM) Computer Chess Championships. Details to be announced.

1991

World Microcomputer Chess Championships, Vancouver, Canada. Dates to be announced.

1992

World Computer Chess Championships, Spain. Dates and exact venue to be announced.

World Microcomputer Chess Championships, Spain. Dates and exact venue to be announced. (This event will be held at a different time of year to the "absolute" World Computer Chess Championship).