CALENDAR OF MAJOR COMPUTER-CHESS EVENTS

For the benefit of our readers who may wish to enter programs in future computer-chess competitions or to attend as spectators, we shall publish regularly a list of future events. Anyone who is planning to organize an event which should be listed in this calendar is invited to send full details to the Editor.

1990

November 11-14
The 21st ACM North American Computer-Chess Championship, to be held in New York.
Details: Monty Newborn, School of Computer Science, McGill University, Montreal, Quebec, Canada H3A 2AQ7
[See also Vol. 13, No. 2, pp. 48-49.]

November 24 to December 1
World Microcomputer Chess Championship. Lyon, France. This Championship is scheduled simultaneously with the last part of the match Kasparov-Karpov in Lyon. Details may be obtained from David Levy, 44, Aylestone Avenue, London NW6 7AA, England.
[See also p. 168 in this issue.]

1991

May 1-9
World Microcomputer Chess Championship, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada. Further details to be announced.

1992

The 1st Mind Sports Olympiad. To be held in the UK.
Details: Raymond Keene OBE, 15e, Queens Gate Place, London SW7 5NX, England or David Levy, 44, Aylestone Avenue, London NW6 7AA, England.

World Computer-Chess Championship, Spain. Dates and venue to be announced.

World Microcomputer Chess Championship, Spain. Dates and venue to be announced. (This event will be held at a different time of year to the "absolute" World Computer-Chess Championship.)

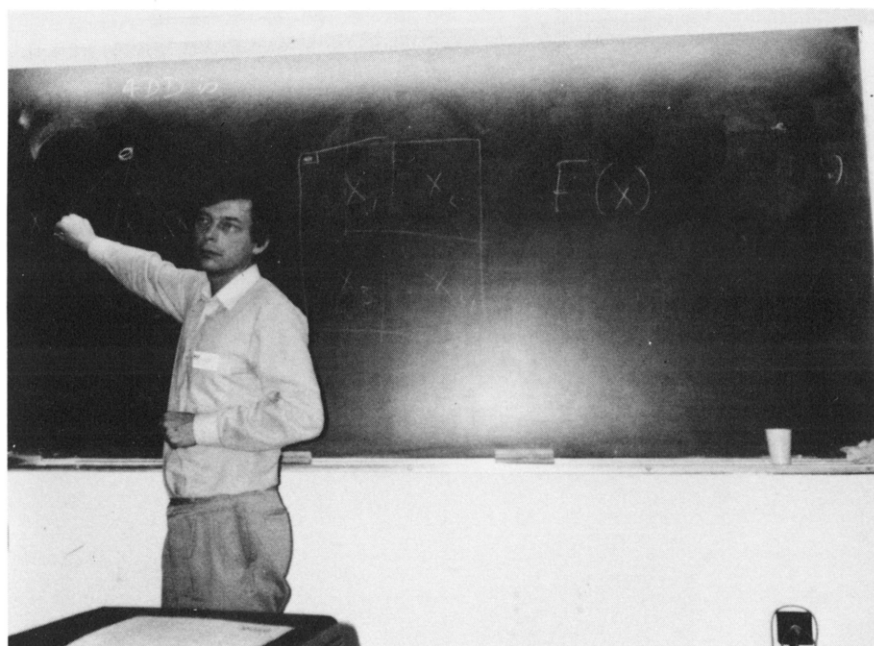

Photo by Jaap van den Herik

Showing Confidence in the Domination of Subspaces.
Mikhail Donskoy, at the Advances in Computer Chess 6 Conference, London, 1990.